

adverb / adjective

Choose one or two of the following assignments -- there should be at least five different adverbs and five different adjectives in each of your texts (please underline them)

1

You are the manager of a company's personnel office (human resources). After a job interview you write a report on the basis of which your team will later decide whether or not to employ the interviewee.

2

Your next-door neighbour is a most difficult person in your eyes. Write a complaint about him or her to the house-owner.

3

There is a teacher that you do not want to work with any longer. Write a polite letter to the headteacher and argue why you would like to be taught by a different person in the following semester.

4

You have just finished reading a novel. Write a review for a newspaper.

5

The house next door has been on fire. Write an article for the yellow press.

6

Your boss makes you ill. Your co-workers get on your nerves. Write a letter to your best friend and tell her or him all about it.